[Correspondence of the Norfolk Journal.]

WINDSOR, N. C., April 19, 1867.

Dear Journal—Since last writing to you, I have passed through the Eastern part of Hertford county; through Winton, Harrellsville, and Colerain, to this place.

The merchants are busy arranging their Spring purchases, the farmers are busy planting, the fishermen busy at the seines, and the fish very busy in running foul of said seines. This fishing business has turned out to be a grand success, this season.—The catch is immense—one seine on the Sound caught over 6,000 shad and 100,000 herring at one haul. That story looks like it ought to be scaled, but there is nothing fishy about it, I assure you.

The owners of the various seines are jubilant, the negroes, who do the work, brag, as only negroes can brag; their allowance of whiskey is increased, wages are tending upward, and the Bureau is for the time forgotten.

That your readers may form some conception of the extent of this interest in the Counties bordering on the Sound, and on the rivers flowing into it, I will state that by an estimate made by a very reliable and intelligent lawyer of this place, the amount of money obtained from this source, in this season, will scarcely fall short of $750,000. Out of this, only the seine, rope, salt and whiskey are brought from abroad; everything else is manufactured or produced here. The barrels are made during the winter by the small farmers, so are the casks for "striking" the fish. So that the amount of clear money by which the aggregate wealth of this section is increased, is really very large, after paying for every necessary in conducting the business.

A peculiar feature in the fishing business, is the presence in this section of large numbers of wagons from "up the country," trading off tobacco and snuff for fish. These wagons come from clean beyond the line of the Richmond and Danville railroad, in Virginia, and from as far west as Guilford and Forsyth Counties in this State; and I will venture to say, that had Sam Slick ever had one encounter, in a fair open trade, with a North Carolina tobacco wagoner, he never would have published the memoirs of his exploits through Yankeedom and Bluenosedom, so completely would the conceit have been rubbed out of him. Then to see the quantities of fish these up-country men can eat. It is edifying. After watching a wagoner and his boys eat breakfast yesterday morning, I could not help advising him to start a small seine on his own account, while down here, just to keep his table supplied. The man himself ate fifteen herring, finished off with a plate full of shad roe, smoked his pipe after breakfast, drank three half pints of new dip, and then went to sleep in his wagon. Why shouldn't he weigh 380 pounds, and why shouldn't he have a good conscience for the balance of the day?

Saw-mills and shingle swamps are also sources of considerable revenue to the denizens of this County. Large quantities of lumber and shingles are shipped hence to Baltimore, Norfolk and Washington, D. C. These various sources of wealth, together with cotton-growing, makes this one of the richest Counties in the State. And if it were not so unhealthy, from the miasmas of the swamps and low grounds, the productiveness of this County would be largely increased. Ditching and draining are progressing yearly, and will, no doubt, have a very beneficial effect on the general health of the people.

The weather continues glorious. Fruit of all kinds will be plentiful, if one can trust the blushing promises of a kind, consenting Spring. Heaven smiles upon us—Congress frowns upon us. Let us believe in the one, and tell the other to go hence.

When you next hear from this correspondent, he will be somewhere on the railroad between Weldon and Goldsboro. Till then, good bye. VIATOR.

MELANCHOLY SUICIDE.—Mrs. Elizabeth Hanes, wife of Braxton J. Hanes, Esq., of Charles City County, committed suicide in that County a few days ago. She was a Miss Goddin, niece of Wellington Goddin, Esq., of Richmond, and had been married only a few months. For amusement she had been in the habit of shooting at a mark with a pistol. On the day of her death, she said to her husband, who was engaged in making out some accounts, that she intended to kill herself. He of course thought she was joking. She took the pistol, loaded it, got him to put a cap on it, went into the garden, walked hurriedly around the walks, kissed a little step child who was there, told it good bye, placed the pistol to her breast, and fired. The bullet penetrated her right lung. She ran to the house shrieking to her husband to save her. He hastened out and she fell into his arms expiring. She had assigned no reason for the rash act, and her dying words to her husband were full of endearment and affection.

An expedition to Russian America is now being organized by the Department of State, for the purpose of making thorough scientific explorations of that region. It is thought that the expedition will be ready to start about the first week in May. The gentlemen to compose the scientific corps have not all been designated; but it is said that Professor Baird, of the Smithsonian Institute, will be of the number. The members of the corps are to assemble at San Francisco, where they will take the revenue cutter Lincoln and sail for Sitka, from which point the expedition will start on its investigation.—Correspondence New York Herald.

A Florida correspondent of the Savannah News & Herald, says the farmers are prosecuting their pursuits with the most persevering activity, and are greatly encouraged thereto by the efforts of the freedmen to redevelop the agricultural resources of the country.

Ex-Admiral Semmes lectured on Wednesday last, at Memphis, to an immense audience for the benefit of the Fannie Thurston Society. The subject was: "The Alabama and her Course, as viewed by the Laws of Nations."

IMPORTANT ORDER BY GENERAL SICKLES.

HEADQ'RS, SECOND MILITARY DIST., Charleston, S. C., April 11, 1867.

The general destitution prevailing among the population of this military district cannot be relieved without affording means for the development of their industrial resources. The nature and extent of the destitution demand extraordinary measures. The people are borne down by a heavy burden of debt; the crops of grain and garden produce failed last year; many families have been deprived of shelter, many more need food and clothing; needful implements and auxiliaries of husbandry are very scarce; the laboring population in numerous localities are threatened with starvation unless supplied with food by the government of the United States; the inability of a large portion of the people to pay taxes leaves the local authorities without adequate means of relief, and the gravity of the situation is increased by the general disposition shown by creditors to enforce upon an impoverished people the immediate collection of all claims. To suffer all this to go on without restraint or remedy is to sacrifice the general good. The rights of creditors shall be respected, but the appeal of want and suffering must be heeded. Moved by these considerations, the following regulations are announced, and they will continue in force, with such modification as the occasion may require, until the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the requirements of the government of the United States. The Commanding General earnestly desires and confidently believes that the observance of these regulations and the co-operation of all persons concerned in employing fairly and justly the advantages still remaining to them, will mitigate the distress now existing, and that the avenues of industry, enterprize and organization thus opened will contribute to the permanent welfare and future happiness of the people:—

First—Imprisonment for debt is prohibited, unless the defendant in execution shall be convicted of a fraudulent concealment or disposition of his property with intent to hinder, delay and prevent the creditor in the recovery of his debt or demand; and the proceedings now established in North and South Carolina respectively for the trial and determining of such questions may be adopted.

Second—Judgment or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising between the 19th of December, 1860, and the 15th of May, 1865, shall not be enforced by execution against the property or the person of the defendant. Proceedings in such causes of action now pending shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be hereafter instituted or commenced for any such causes of action.

Third—Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend for twelve calendar months the sale of all property upon execution or process on liabilities contracted prior to the 19th of December, 1860, unless upon the written consent of the defendants, except in cases where the plaintiff, or in his absence his agent or attorney, shall upon oath, with corroborative testimony, allege and prove that the defendant is moving or intends fraudulently to remove his property beyond the territorial jurisdiction of the court. The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage is likewise suspended for twelve calendar months, except in cases where the payment of interest money accruing since the 15th day of May, 1865, shall not have been made before the day of sale.

Fourth—Judgments or decrees entered or enrolled on causes of action arising subsequent to the 15th of May, 1865, may be enforced by execution against the property of the defendant, and in the application of the money arising under such executions regard shall be had to the priority of liens, unless in cases where the good faith of any lien shall be drawn in question. In such cases, the usual mode of proceeding adopted in North and South Carolina respectively to determine that question shall be adopted.

Fifth—All proceedings for the recovery of money under contracts, whether under seal or by parole, the consideration for which was the purchase of negroes, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered or enrolled for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Sixth—All advances of moneys, subsistence, implements and fertilizers leaned, used, employed or required for the purpose of aiding the agricultural pursuits of the people shall be protected, and the existing laws which have provided the most efficient remedies in such cases for the lender will be supported and enforced. Wages for labor performed in the production of the crops shall be a lien on the crop, and payment of the amount due for such wages shall be enforced by the like remedies provided to secure advances of money and other means for the cultivation of the soil.

Seventh—In all sales of property and execution or by order of any court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances and twenty acres of land for the use and occupation of the family of the defendant, and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence, implements of trade, husbandry or other employment of the value of $500. The homestead exemption shall enure only to the benefit of families—that is to say, parent or parents and child or children—in other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing, implements of trade or other employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of $100. The exempted property of the defendant shall be ascertained by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall specifically describe the same and make a report thereof in each case to the Court.

Eighth—The currency of the United States declared by the Congress of the United States to be a legal tender in the payment of all debts, dues and demands, shall be so recognized in North and South Carolina, and all cases in which the same shall be tendered in payment and refused by any public officer will be at once reported to these headquarters, or to the commanding officer of the post within which such officer resides.

Ninth—Property of an absent debtor or one charged as such without fraud, whether consisting of money advanced for the purposes of agriculture or appliances for the cultivation of the soil, shall not be taken under the process known as foreign attachment; but the lien created by any existing law shall not be disturbed, nor shall the possession or the use of the same be in any wise interfered with except in the execution of a judgment or final decree in cases where they are authorized to be enforced.

Tenth—In suits to recover ordinary debts known as actions ex contractu, bail, as heretofore authorized, shall not be demanded by the suitor nor taken by the sheriff or other officer serving the process; in suits for trespass, libel, wrongful conversion of property and other cases, known as actions ex delicto, bail, as heretofore authorized, may be demanded and taken. The prohibition of bail in cases ex contractu shall not extend to parties about to leave the State; but the fact of intention must be clearly established by proof.

Eleventh—In criminal proceedings the usual recognizances shall be required and taken by the proper civil officers heretofore authorized by law to take the same, provided that upon complaint being made to any magistrate or other person authorized by law to issue a warrant for breach of the peace or any criminal offence, it shall be the duty of such magistrate or officer to issue his warrant on the recognizance of the complainant to prosecute without requiring him to give security on such recognizance.

Twelfth—The practice of carrying deadly weapons, except by officers and soldiers in the military service of the United States, is prohibited. The concealment of such weapons on the person will be deemed an aggravation of the offence. A violation of this order will render the offender amenable to trial and punishment by military commission. Whenever wounding or killing shall result from the use of such weapons, proof of the party carrying or concealing a deadly weapon shall be deemed evidence of a felonious attempt to take the life of the injured person.

Thirteenth—The order heretofore issued in this military department prohibiting the punishment of crimes and offences by whipping, maiming, branding, stocks, pillory or other corporal punishment, is in force and will be obeyed by all persons.

Fourteenth—The punishment of death in certain cases of burglary and larceny imposed by the existing laws of the provisional governments in this military district is abolished. Any person convicted of burglary or of larceny, when the property stolen is of the value of $25, of assault and battery with intent to kill, or of any assault with a deadly weapon, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding ten years nor less than two years, in the discretion of the court having jurisdiction thereof. Larceny, when the value thereof is less than $25, shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding one year in the discretion of the court.

Fifteenth—The Governors of North and South Carolina shall have authority within their jurisdiction respectively to reprieve or pardon any person convicted and sentenced by a civil court and to remit fines and penalties.

Sixteenth—Nothing in this order shall be construed to restrain or prevent the operation of proceedings in bankruptcy in accordance with the acts of Congress in such cases made and provided for, with the collection of any tax, impost, excise or charge levied by authority of the United States or of the provisional governments of North and South Carolina; but no imprisonment for over due taxes shall be allowed, nor shall this order or any law of the provisional governments of North and South Carolina operate to deny to minor children coming of age, or their legal representatives, nor to suspend as to them, any right of action, remedy or proceeding against executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, or other officers or persons holding a fiduciary relation to the parties or the subject matter of the action or proceeding.

Seventeenth—Any law or ordinance heretofore in force in North or South Carolina inconsistent with the provisions of this General Order is hereby suspended and declared inoperative.

Major General D. E. SICKLES.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 24, 1867.

THE WESTERN DEMOCRAT.

Our cotemporary has more than a half column in reply to the following remark from a recent article of ours:

"We have always believed that Mr. Yates was a gentleman of conservative inclinations, but we think that he has committed a great error of judgment in affiliating with the destructives in this State."

The Democrat desires that we should republish its article. If we supposed, for a moment, that our readers did not understand us, and that thereby the Democrat was treated unjustly, we would unhesitatingly do so. But, in doing so, we should be compelled to employ more space in reply, than we desire. We readily admit that the Democrat has been doing all it could "to prevent further destruction of property or rights or injury to the people." We had set down our cotemporary as a friend of the people and of the State—as a friend of peace and quiet and good government; hence our surprise at the readiness with which it apologises for and defends those whose occupation for years has been to agitate, distract and disturb the people of this State. This class of persons we call "destructives"—because their purpose is to keep up and promote agitation to effect a selfish object, which will be destructive to the peace and harmony of our people.

We do not, and did not, charge the Democrat with being a destructive. Perhaps the word "affiliation" was too strong. Our purpose was simply to express our surprise at the course of the Democrat, which was so ready to censure those who are really conservative, and to defend and apologise for those who now aim to force upon North Carolina such a State government as Tennessee has. This object of the Holdenites the Democrat cannot have failed to discover. Charged with it, as they have been repeatedly, no Holdenite paper has denied it that we are aware.

Morever, the rancor, the bitterness, the violent attacks of the Standard upon us, are known all over the State. It has assailed with violence, and without cause, every prominent man in the State who opposed its ambitious designs. Has the Democrat ever been known, within the past two years, to rebuke or censure or counsel the Standard for its course? Does the Democrat censure and counsel the Sentinel, because it is always wrong, and because the Standard is always right? In this regard the Democrat has imitators, who are singularly blind to the faults of the Standard, but keen-eyed and ready to rebuke all the Sentinel may say in its defense. The Sentinel, and all connected with it, would greatly prefer, if they could in truth and honesty, to praise the Standard and Mr. Holden, rather than blame it or him. We desire no controversy or conflict with any one. But would the Sentinel act in good faith to its readers and the public, if it were silent or would endorse the teachings of the Standard, when it knew those teachings were pernicious and destructive of the peace of society? Or, would the Democrat have us cravenly and meanly shut our mouths from fear of offending the Mogul of discord and agitation in North Carolina? We have charged that the design of the Holdenites is to get the control of the State government, not for the purpose of securing the quiet and peace of society, but to vent their political spleen against those who oppose them. This has not been denied, authoritatively, by any one.—The object is not to disfranchise secessionists and war men, because many of them can be proven to be involved in as great guilt as, some of them in greater guilt in these respects than, others; but the purpose is to put under the ban many of our best citizens for what they call disloyalty,—by which they mean that they are not Holdenites! We venture the assertion, that the most violent by-gone disloyalists in this State, can secure perfect immunity, perfect sympathy and protection, as far as they can protect them, from these Holdenites or North Carolina Radicals, any day they choose to go over to the Holdenites. Would the Democrat have us sanction such rottenness and meanness? Would it have us to shut our mouths, when such designs against the peace and harmony of our people are prosecuted by the most unscrupulous and demoralizing men? We hope not. We have proposed, in good faith, that if the so-called Republican party of North Carolina will pledge itself to incorporate nothing in the State Constitution but what is demanded by the Reconstruction law of Congress, (and that we take to be the platform of the Republican party in Congress,) we will not oppose them in such a measure? Does any North Carolina Republican or Holdenite consent to such a pledge? Are they not, in all their primary meetings, insisting upon further disfranchisement and upon confiscation?

The Democrat says: "We think the Sentinel is entirely mistaken in saying, that the Standard has taken ground in favor of confiscation." We are surprised at this. We read the Standard very differently. It distinctly assures "loyal" men that they need not be afraid of confiscation, and the whole tenor of its remarks indicates its approval of Mr. Stevens' plan.

Finally, we are for peace and quiet. The Reconstruction Act of Congress we hold to be the law of the land, and, as law abiding men, we will carry it out—we favor the reconstruction of the State upon that basis—nothing less, nothing more. Upon this we stand or fall. Those who advocate measures which go beyond this we must, and will, oppose to the end. Does the Democrat go to that line, or does it go beyond? That is the only point upon which difference can arise.

If our friend of the Democrat desires to inform our readers more fully and correctly of its position, than we have done above, we will most cheerfully publish his article, provided he will publish our reply to it, if we shall see any cause to reply.

SENATOR WILSON, OF MASS.

This gentleman, on his tour of speech-making in the South, will probably arrive in this city in a few days. We cannot doubt, whatever differences may exist in the views which he and our fellow-citizens may entertain, that he will be received kindly and treated courteously. Mr. Wilson is not of that class of Northern men who harbor enmity or counsel violence towards the South; he seems honestly to feel that the policy of his party is a catholicon for all the evils which may have existed in the government or among our people, and that its universal prevalence will be a precursor of millenial glory. It is quite useless to attempt to convince him, much less to move him from his position by sharp retort. We are not without hope, however, that real intercourse with our people, and a survey of matters as they really exist among us, will serve to modify, if not change, his views.

In reply to his recent speech at Orange Court House, Major Lee followed in some remarks, after which Mr. Wilson said:

"I assure the people that if rights are denied colored men at the North, the guilt is upon the Democratic party and a few timorous Republicans. Another year will bring about a change. Ohio, Michigan, and New York will come all right. The great principle of equal rights must everywhere prevail. He positively declared to the white men present that the S. S. S. bill is a finality, and that if its provisions are in good faith accepted, no more will be, or could be demanded. If it is rejected, he admitted confiscation might follow. Urging its acceptance, he said that after confiscation the State Governments might be dissolved, and the South divided into territories upon the same tooting with——[a man in the crowd suggested Poland."]

This utterance is important, coming from Mr. Wilson, a prominent leader of the Republican party.

"Conservatism is a negative word and has no virtue in it."

The foregoing sentiment was uttered by the Hon. Henry Wilson, of Massachusetts, in his recent speech at Orange C. H., Va. It embodies the theory and practice of modern Radicalism, and it is to the prevalence of just such ideas that the country is indebted for all of its present trouble and past calamity.

If there be any one thing which is positive it is conservatism,—the desire to preserve what is established and what experience has demonstrated to be good and wise.—Had the counsels of conservatism been heeded, the spirit of ultra-abolitionism, which ultimately deinged the country in blood, would have been crushed, when, more than thirty years ago, it first reared its hideous crest.

Had this been done, there is every probability that, in 1860, slavery would not have been in existence at all, or, if at all, in a lingering and feeble shape. With slavery left to itself, emancipation would have been in progressive operation for twenty-five years. That glorious old patriot, Henry Clay, whose mighty shade Mr. Wilson invokes in the very speech to which we are alluding, was the great champion of conservatism on this continent, and he foresaw the destruction which this demon of ultra-abolitionism would bring about. The debates in the Virginia Convention, and in the North Carolina Convention of 1835, prove what we say, that the public sentiment of the South at that time was ripe for incipient emancipation, when this same demon commenced sowing the seeds of discord and kindling the flames of strife. The harshest restrictions of slavery, and the evils which grew out of it, are directly traceable to this same prolific source of mischief and ruin.

Had the warning of conservative men been regarded, the South would not have lent so ready an ear to the party leaders in the South who for so many years educated the people to believe in secession and sought to bring about a dissolution of the Union.—Had conservative fetlings prevailed, after the cessation of hostilities, the country would long since have been tranquilized and on the high-way to prosperity. Could conservative influences now obtain, how easy would be the solution of all our difficulties!

Mr. Wilson, we understand, claims to be a Conservative-Radical. That strikes us as about as great a contradiction of terms as bright-darkness.

REGISTRATION.—As heretofore stated, the offices for registering voters are fully open in New Orleans. We are glad to see that the papers of that city are urging upon the people to go forward and register. The unanimity with which all the papers of the South advocate this course is certainly somewhat remarkable, and should there be an occasional doubt entertained as to our duty in this great crisis of our country, the unanimous opinion of all our leading men ought to remove that doubt. We have no room to recapitulate the forcible argumen ts of our New Orleans cotemporaries. The Times says:

"The citizen who shall prove a delinquent on this occasion, who, from any consideration shall fail to have himself registered, will stand in the attitude of one who deserts his post in a moment of great peril to his cause and country. He will incur the severe upbraiding of his own conscience, and the reproach of his fellow citizens. His rights, his property, his every interest, will be exposed to the greatest peril. It will require the united votes of all good citizens, without regard to old and past divisions of parties, to save the government of the State from falling into the hands of a band of irresponsible persons."

THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT.—The statement is repeated that President Johnson will visit this City about the middle of May, at which time, it is stated, the corner-stone of a monument in memory of the President's father will be laid. It is also announced that the President will be accompanied by Mr. Seward and one or two others of his Cabinet. He may extend his trip farther South.

If all parties will agree to let the negro alone, we have no doubt that both races will work together in the South for peace and prosperity.—Charlotte Democrat.

We agree fully with our cotemporary. We do not know of but one party in North Carolina, and that is the one organized in this city on the 27th of March last. Many of the people are opposed to the designs of the indorsers and actors in that meeting. If there is a purpose, on the part of opposers, to organize another "party," we do not know it. We see no need of any party in the South, until the Southern States are admitted by Congress to be members of the Union. Indeed, it looks like contumacy or indecent blustering for us to talk of forming parties in our condition.

We see no need of organizing parties, or calling State or County Conventions. All of these are agitating and exciting and can do little good. Platforms are not needed. Congress has given us platform enough. Nothing else is wanted. If the people, white or colored, want to hear particular speakers, we see no wrong in their complying with their request. If any one chooses to print or speak for the instruction of the people, white or colored, we see no wrong in that. Nor do we see any wrong in gentlemen declaring themselves candidates for the Convention and canvassing. But for caucuses and conventions to form parties, or to bring out candidates, and the ordinary party machinery, we see no need.

AT HOME.—Col. Pool, of the Journal of Commerce, at Newbern, is at his post again, prepared to do good service. He says:

"We are at home again, ready to do our duty, as we understand it, regardless of consequences to ourself personally. What we have written to-day will show where we stand upon the questions at issue. We have recently had opportunities of judging, to some extent, of the popular feeling at the North, as typified by the three classes of politicians in the city of New York. A bowshot beyond all these, the radicals of North Carolina go; and we would trust to-day the most extreme men North before we would rely upon those men in North Carolina who are determined to rule and ruin the land. To prevent their unholy designs, we shall leave no honorable means untried; and our neighbors of the Sentinel will find us ever ready to co-operate with them in the good work to the extent of our ability.

Our Junior has Shot well during our absence, and he will continue in the local columns to bag his game as heretofore. We feel that the canvass before us is to be an exciting one, and both of us will pitch in, a la Heenan, and though we may be battered and bruised we expect to retire from the field victorious."

AN ALABAMA RADICAL.—Mr. John Hardy, now one of the radical leaders at Selma, was editor of a bitter Confederate paper in 1862, in which he spoke of "the degraded and prostituted old government" of the United States, and threatened to "manure the soil of the South with Yankee bones."—N. O. Crescent.

Yes, they are all tarred with the same stick. Hardy is every whit as consistent as Holden or Hunnicutt. Both the latter voted for the Ordinances of Secession. And while Hardy, in 1862, spoke of the "degraded and prostituted old government," Holden, in the same year, pronounced it "a rank and bloody usurpation."

THE COMING WEATHER.—French scientific men predict that the Summer of 1867 will be cold and wet like that of 1866, and they base the prediction on the fact that immense masses of ice have broken or are about to break away from the extreme North, producing cold and vapor.

HON. HENRY WILSON, of Massachusetts, addresses the citizens of Norfolk this afternoon.

UNFILLED VACANCIES TO CIVIL OFFICE—THE AUSTRIAN MISSION—BANKRUPT RULES AND REGISTERS, &c.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—There has been a general clearing out of office-seekers and their lobbyists from the city since last night. But few non-residents now remain, save successful candidates, who hold back to give bonds, receive their commissions, &c. It is admitted on all sides that there will not be a quorum in either branch of Congress in July. No one expects that body to convene until December.

The Senate having failed to confirm all the nominations of the President, it now becomes necessary for the administration to determine how vacant officers shall be disposed of under the tenure of office law.

A number of postoffices in the various States are vacant, and there is no authority for appointing any one to take charge of their affairs. The law does not authorize the appointments of deputies and the offices are absolutely closed.

The President has not decided what shall be done with the Austrian mission the Senate having failed to confirm Mr. Raymond. The matter is to be disposed of in a few days. In the meantime, the Secretary of State has instructed Mr. Motley to deliver the official papers, documents, &c., to the vice-consul at Vienna, and Mr. Motley is thereupon to be relieved from duty. This official order was forwarded to Vienna several days ago.

Rules for uniform practice in all the States under the bankrupt law, have been prepared and are now in the hands of the Chief Justice. Hon. T. A. Jenckes, of Rhode Island, father of the bankrupt bill, has been several days aiding in the preparation of these rules. United States Marshal Parsons has completed the briefing of applications for registers of bankruptcy for New York and Brooklyn. The briefs were placed in the hands of the Chief Justice last night. Appointments of registers for these two cities will be made this week.

SUPERIOR COURT.—This tribunal, Judge Mitchell presiding, commenced in the Court Room on yesterday, and the whole day was consumed in transferring all criminal cases (one hundred and fifty in number) to the next term of the Criminal Court, to be held on the 4th Monday in May.

There is a large amount of business in the Court, there being over seven hundred cases upon the civil docket.

We learn that debtors are coming forward and paying one-tenth, believing it to be to their advantage, as that gives them four years to clear the debt; and under the "Sickles' Order" they have but one year to wear and haul upon.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

Hon. Herschel V. Johnson, the Douglas candidate for Vice President, in company with H. W. Hilliard, addressed a gathering of colored men at Augusta, Georgia, on the 15th instant.

GOOD FEELING AND FRIENDLY CO-OPERATION BETWEEN WHITES AND BLACKS.

[From the Richmond Whig, April 13.]

It is of the first importance to the present tranquility and future prosperity of this State that there should be a good understanding, good feeling and friendly co-operation between the two races. Their political rights and privileges are the same—they are both Virginians, and on Virginia soil they will both have to live and die. If in the opening of the new era the seeds of distrust, alienation and enmity are sown, we will hereafter reap a never ending harvest of woe. Those bad men who, for despicably selfish purposes, are endeavoring to array the blacks in hostility to the whites, and thus pave the way for a conflict of races and interminable strife between labor and capital, are not only enemies of the two races, but of religion, the peace of society and good government. They are hostes humani generis. They are deceiving and betraying the colored people, and are making promises they will never be able to fulfil.—In the beginning of this new order of things it is very important that the whites and the blacks should take counsel together so that they may come to a friendly understanding, and lay the groundwork for a harmonious political co-operation. By keeping apart we do just what the factionists want us to do; we secure their ascendency. If the colored people desire to consult with us and to call upon leading white citizens to attend their meetings and participate in their proceedings, all they have to do is to make their wishes known. They do not need to be told that respectable white men will not deceive or mislead them, and the sooner they establish communication between themselves and such the better it will be for us all, and the sooner they will get relief from the tyranny of that miserable faction whose exactions in the way both of contributions and services are becoming intolerable. Upon the discretion, wisdom and good feeling of those of our white citizens who may be called upon to address the colored people, everything depends. If they would faithfully subserve the good work, they will have to realize in its fullest force that the colored people are citizens, with all the rights and privileges of such; that they are their own masters and their votes are as good and effective as those of the whites. We expect the best results from the plan of action about being inaugurated, and hope that leading citizens among both the whites and the blacks will participate actively in it.

TENNESSEE.—The telegraph announces that the conservative Convention at Nashville has nominated Hon. Emerson Etheridge for Governor of Tennessee. The contest, then, will be between Etheridge, the Conservative candidate, and Brownlow, the Radical.

The nomination of Etheridge is, perhaps, the best that, under the circumstances, could have been made. Mr. Etheridge, though still a comparatively young man, is a veteran politician. He entered Congress, after having previously served in the State Legislature, as long ago as 1853, and has served several terms in that body. A Union man by education and conviction, he adhered to the Federal side during the war, but although he was appointed clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington at the beginning of the contest, the extreme radicalism of the dominant party soon drove him into alliance with the Northern Democrats, notwithstanding he had been a life-long opponent of the Democratic party.—Since then he has opposed the radicals with all his fine ability, fearlessness and uncompromising spirit, and now stands undoubtedly at the head of those Conservatives in Tennessee who are not excluded from office either by Federal laws or the brutal laws of the State. No other man in the State is better qualified to meet Brownlow in debate, and as the election does not take place until August, it is fair to presume they will canvass the State together, and frequently meet in discussion "on the stump." In such encounters the Conservatives will have a gallant and worthy champion, and Brownlow will have an opponent, who, in every respect, except low blackguardism and profanity, is more than his match. Bold, fearless, thoroughly posted in politics, an acute reasoner, quick and ready in repartee, impressing an audience always with a conviction of his thorough honesty, and the very man in all Tennessee best qualified to compel Brownlow to keep within the bounds of decency and truth, he will make a canvass that will be memorable in our political annals, and we would have no doubt of his election if so many of the best people of Tennessee were not illegally excluded from the ballot box. As it is, we trust sincerely he may be elected, and there is, indeed, a fair prospect of his success.—We cannot conceive how it is possible that Tennesseeans can consent to a continuance of the rule of a man whose name has been the synonym of brutality, lawlessness and corruption.—N. O. Crescent.

RECONSTRUCTION IN THE SOUTH.

A letter which we have just received from a conservative source in Atlanta, Georgia, states that the writer has found, from all that he has seen and heard, that there is much less difficulty as to reconstruction than had been expected. General Pope had expressed himself gratified by his reception, and thinks there will be no serious difficulty in Georgia and Alabama in the execution of the reconstruction measures.

Letters received here from citizens of South Carolina also state that reorganization under the acts of Congress will be carried out by common consent, and in the full hope of beneficial results. From Virginia we hear that reconstruction is generally acquiesced in.

No idea prevails, either in the Carolinas or in Virginia, according to these statements, of suspending proposed State co-operation in the work of re-organization, in the expectation of a decision by the United States Supreme Court in favor of the injunction applied for.

Further, it is to be noticed that the political question involved is intimately connected with pressing and practical questions. No longer can restoration be deferred without prolonged and aggravated injury to the material interests of the South. It has become a question of bread. Means of subsistence, to say nothing of revived prosperity, can be secured only by co-operation of labor with capital. The whites have the land without the labor. The blacks have the labor without the land. The expectation of a current of immigration from Europe and the Southern States has not been verified, and will not be until after political restoration.—National Intelligencer.

The Alexandria Gazette, which claims to know what it talks about, when talking about shad, has the following recipe for "corning" shad:

Procure a fresh fat shad—clean it well—lay it in a tray—sprinkle it with salt—let it remain for twelve hours—take it out, wipe the salt off—dry it—broil it nicely, putting on it a little butter and pepper and then—eat it! Corned shad are different from salted shad.

Wendell Phillips advertised a lecture on "The Lost Arts" in Ottowa, Ills., and the Bumble of that borough insisted upon his paying a preliminary tax of ten dollars as a juggler.

NOTICE.

OFFICE SEABOARD & ROANOKE R. R. CO., PORTSMOUTH, VA., March 22d. 1867.

IT has been understood by the officers in charge of transportation via the Seaboard Inland Freight Route, that letters addressed to the Railroad Agent at Portsmouth, on the subject of freights, are unanswered, and that in consequence, causes of delay are not explained, and claims for losses and damage unsettled, and as the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, who are the forwarding agents for the line, are satisfied that these causes of complaint are not due to their Agents, but to the inaccuracy of the mails, in order to test this subject, the Manager of the Seaboard Road requests that whenever persons have written to the undersigned Agent of the Seaboard Road, and after waiting a reasonable time for a reply, have not received it, that they will address him a letter enclosing a duplicate of the letter they had previously addressed to the agent. If this is complied with, and the Manager of the Seaboard Road receives the letter, he gives assurance that it shall be promptly investigated and replied to.

This Air-Line Freight Route

claims to be the most expeditious and direct route, and avoiding to a great extent Marine Insurance, also the cheapest freight route between the

THE SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 24, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—W. B. Edmundson, Wilmington, wishes to rent or lease desirable property in that City.

See Court advertisement from Gates county.

W. H. High, Trustee of Mr. C. M. Farriss, will sell, on the 20th. prox., several valuable lots, and parts of lots, in the City, the property of the Trustor.

L. Eldridge, C. M. E., of Johnston, will sell valuable property in that County, on the 11th. prox.

Attention is called to the change in the buying rates of the Banking House of Thos. Branch & Sons, Petersburg.

Messrs. Jno. G. Williams & Co. are the agents of the Manhattan Life Insurance Company, of New York. This is one of the oldest and most reliable institutions in the country.

MATCH GAME.—We understand that the Crescent Base Ball Club, of this city, has accepted the challenge of the Euphemian Club, of Kinston, and the game will come off on Thursday, (to-morrow,)—the ground, of the former Club, in this city, having been selected as the scene of combat. The following are the respective nines:

EUPHEMIAN:—J. W. Blount, Capt.; T. Williams, T. L. Hartsfield, J. D. Wood, J. M. H. Washington, L. Wade, D. E. Swinson, R. S. Hay, and Lewis Pennington.

CRESCENT:—B. C. Manly, Capt.; A. Phillips, W. A. B. Branch, James McKimmon, G. H. Snow, C. J. Iredell, J. C. Blake, S. C. White, and E. F. Page.

PARDONED.—We learn that Gov. Worth, at the urgent petition of a large number of citizens, has remitted the balance of the sentence of imprisonment of Mr. Rufus Hodge, of this County, who was convicted of man-slaughter at the last Fall term of Wake Superior Court.

WE LEARN that Col. Bomford has been relieved from the duties of his position as Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, and that Gen. Miles has been appointed.

We learn further that the State has been divided into eleven military departments, and that Col. Bomford has been named as the commandant of the department of Raleigh, embracing seven Counties.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD.—The following note fully explains itself. We beg that the newspapers which copied the advertisement will please attend to its request:

OXFORD, N. C., April 20th, 1867.

Messrs. Editors of the Sentinel.—The Trustees of "St. John's College" having effected an arrangement by which to discharge the debts of that institution, and thereby to carry out as nearly as practicable the instructions of the Grand Lodge, by a sale to Mr. John H. Mills, the present occupant,—have been authorized by Mr. John Berry, the mortgagee, to withdraw the advertisements to sell the property on the 7th of May next.

You will therefore please insert this communication in the Sentinel and send marked copies to the papers in which the advertisement has appeared, that the same may be discontinued, and that their bills may be forwarded to Mr. Mills at this place, for payment. Respectfully,

J. T. LITTLEJOHN,
Secretary, &c.

The Trustees of the College have finally confirmed the sale of the College to Mr. Mills and he will continue his Female College. We are glad of this. He has been an indefatigable worker in the cause of female education, and we are pleased to know that his arrangements are complete for the prosecution of his labors in this cause.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR.—We beg to call attention to a typographical error, which escaped our notice, on yesterday, in the card to the public of Gov. Worth. Instead of "immeasurable executive duties," the reader will please read "innumerable." Our cotemporaries will please make the correction in the card.

DESTITUTION.—In obedience to a resolution of the General Assembly, Gov. Worth, some weeks ago, sent a copy of the resolution to the authorities of each County in the State, requesting from each a report of the extent of destitution found in their Counties. Strange to say, no returns have been received at the Executive office for 66 Counties in the State. Only 23 Counties have responded. We regret this reminiscence. It is important that the information should be given, in order to a proper care and effort for the relief of the destitute.

GENERAL PILLOW IN COURT.—The Memphis (Tenn.) Post says that an action has been "brought against General Gideon J. Pillow for goods taken by him while in command of Confederate forces in Tennessee during the war. The defendant's plea, filed by Colonel Haynes, sets forth the facts and circumstances of the war, the exigencies and necessities of the case, and was a plea of confession and avoidance or justification. The court held that the plea was bad, and said that the facts of the case and justification might be shown under the general issue. Both counsel in the case—viz., Colonel McRae for plaintiff, and Colonel Haynes and General Chalmers for defendant—expressed the conviction that the case would go to the Supreme Court of the United States."

GEORGIA STATE LOTTERY.—We have been shown the official drawing of the Georgia State Lottery, (Class A,) for the benefit of the Masonic Orphans' Home, which took place at Atlanta, Ga., on the 17th instant.—Number 21,648 drew the capital prize of $50,000. Mr. W. T. Walter, of Columbia, S. C., is the lucky person. Numbers 2949, 19,504 and 19,604 called for respectively the $30,000, $10,000 and $5,000 prizes. I. M. Nunez, of Columbus, and W. Wiley and W. P. Berry, of Atlanta, Ga., were the fortunate individuals. Besides these, there were two prizes of $2,500 each, and several hundred approximation and other prizes drawn.—Wil. Journal.

WHAT A HISTORIAN SAYS OF US.—In his last speech in the French Assembly, M. Thiers, the distinguished historian, said: "America is one of the youngest and most enterprising nations; what has she done? She had a choice among free States. She had England, which is free. She had France, which has been free, which ought to be free, and can be so again. She chose Russia. Was she guided by her internal policy? No, Messieurs, she said to herself: England has tendencies favorable to the Southern States. In France they dream of a certain Empire, and an expedition was made to establish it. [Noise and confusion.] Therefore America went over to Russia. That proves what I was saying, that nations do not conform their foreign to their domestic policy."

EFFECT OF FRIGHT.—On Sunday night a party of colored people in a house on Halifax street were talking of ghosts, when one of them, a woman, expressed herself as being very much afraid of them. Soon afterwards, having occasion to go in the rear of the house, she encountered a man who had wrapped himself in a sheet, for the purpose of frightening her. The poor creature was so much alarmed that she instantly fell speechless to the ground, and up to last accounts she had not spoken. Her condition is very critical, and the cruel joke perpetrated upon her may yet eventuate in her death. This case should be a warning.—Petersburg Index.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.—It is stated that Thaddeus Stevens is writing a pamphlet in support of Sumner's bill securing universal suffrage at the North.—National Intelligencer.

FERTILIZERS

FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 225 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Rayne, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.50
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	36.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.50
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 12 3-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.00
	99.00

The animal matter afforded 4 3-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

THE SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1867.

TWO LITTLE PAIRS OF BOOTS.

Two little pairs of boots, to-night,
Before the fire are drying,
Two little pairs of tired feet
In a trundle-bed are lying;
The tracks they left upon the floor
Make me feel like sighing.

Those little boots, with copper toes!
They run the livelong day!
And oftentimes I almost wish
That they were miles away;
So tired I am to hear so oft
Their heavy tramp at play.

They walk about the new plowed ground,
Where mud in plenty lies;
They roll it up in marbles round
And bake it into pies;
And then at night upon the floor,
In every shape it dries.

To-day, I was disposed to scold;
But when I took to-night
At those little boots before the fire,
With copper toes so bright,
I think how sad my heart would be
To put them out of sight.

For in truth, up stairs, I've laid
Two socks of white and blue;
If called to put those boots away,
O, God, what should I do?
I mourn, that there are not to-night
Three pairs instead of two.

I mourn, because I thought how nice
My neighbor "cross the way,"
Could keep her carpets all the year
From getting worn or gray;
Yet, well I know, she'd smile to own
Some little boots to-day.

We, mothers, weary get and worn,
Over our load of care;
But how we speak of little ones
Lest each of us be aware;
For what would our lives be besides
If no little boots were there?

A CHINESE FUNERAL.—In death all men are equal. This fact was strikingly illustrated by a grand Chinese funeral which took place in this city yesterday. The time was when the funeral of a wealthy Chinaman in San Francisco presented the incongruous sight of heathen customs performed in the streets of a Christian city—the noise of most unearthly music played to "keep the devil away," and the mockery of grief by a score or two of Chinese prostitutes dressed in white, disheveled hair, and wagons loaded with the materials for the "feast of the dead," the corpse covered with a red cloth and drawn by a jeb wagon, and similar uncouth sights, formed the pageantry of such a funeral.

That which occurred yesterday was quite a different affair, and showed how rapidly the Chinese are adopting our civilization. The corpse was placed in an elegant rosewood casket, with silver mountings, and was drawn in one of the finest hearses in the city. The mourners and friends of the deceased rode in carriages the same as other people. The only indication of its being a Chinaman's funeral was one of the race seated alongside the driver of the hearse, scattering square pieces of paper, on each of which was a small patch of silver foil, punched into six holes. These singular shreds and patches of paper are supposed to have some power in appeasing the wrath of grim death, the great leveler.—Alta California.

The way they weigh hogs in Kansas is as follows: They first tie the hog to one end of a rail, balance the rail on a fence with rocks tied to the other end, and then guess how much the rocks weigh.

"What are you doing with my microscope, George?"

"I've been shaving, father, and I want to see if there are any hairs in the lather."

If the storm of adversity whistles around you, whistle as bravely yourself; perhaps the two whistles may make melody.

A friend of ours visiting a neighbor, found him disabled from having a horse step upon his foot. Hobbling out of the stable, the sufferer explained how it happened. "I was standing here," said he, "and the horse brought his foot right down on mine." Our friend looked at the injured member, which was of the No. 14 pattern, and said, very quietly, "Well, the horse must step somewhere."

A little girl four years old was recently called as a witness in a police court, and in answer to the question as to what became of little girls who tell falsehoods, she innocently replied that they were sent to bed.

Punch illustrates "unbecoming levity," by presenting a wood cut of the scene in a church, wherein a crowd of spectators are awaiting the arrival of a wedding party. To the scene is appended this dialogue by way of glossary:

Fair Young Lady—"I see somebody in the crowd outside waving a handkerchief. I suppose the bride is approaching."

Light Young Man—"A handkerchief? White one? By Jove, perhaps its a reprieve."

[Scene—Railroad car. A passenger stretched full length on one of the benches in the smoking car, with a "vevayan" in his mouth.]

Polite conductor (gathering tickets)—How are you, Thomas; glad to see you; seldom catch sight of you on this road.

Passenger (lazily blowing out the smoke)—No, John, not often. The fact is, when I have business up this way, I generally take a horse and wagon; but as I am in no hurry to day—time not of the slightest consequence—I thought I might as well use the cars.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same, and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX.
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

SEC. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the court, House of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2 186. shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the Constitution of the United states, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a majority of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required.—In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages.—This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States.—Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.
